

RPCN Wall of Fame Awards

Who can nominate?

Whether you are a consultant, an entrepreneur, a consultant's client, a Rochester business or a Rochester area resident, you are eligible to nominate candidates in any of the following categories. Please provide the person's name, business name, role and the reason you would nominate him or her in each of the categories. You can nominate up to two people in each category.

Winners will be recognized as honored guests at the RPCN Gala to be held on April 21, 2015 at the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel on Jefferson Road at 7 pm.

RPCN will compare nominees in each category and select winners based on the quality and effectiveness of their contribution as described by the nominator.

There are five awards for 2015:

Consultant's Consultant

Identify the person you judge to have influenced you the most in your practice, job or business. It could be a role model, an author, one of your clients, a colleague or a consultant or coach that you hired.

Community Champion

Identify the person you judge to have provided direction or guidance that resulted in a noteworthy improvement in your community or community service organization in the area.

Entrepreneur of the Year

What business owner or corporate officer in the Rochester area would you judge to have had the most noteworthy achievement in business? In this broad category you may consider anyone whose benefit to the area landed their business a state award or recognition, anyone who created a significant number of jobs for the year, anyone whose business experienced significant growth, and anyone whose actions or business presence had the most community benefit.

Dave Young Award

Any member of RPCN whose devotion, dedication or efforts most benefitted the RPCN organization, its' growth, programs or standing in the community.

Linda Halliburton Award

Any non-member of RPCN whose devotion, dedication or efforts most benefitted the RPCN organization, its growth or its programs is eligible for this award.
